WORKSPACES FOR LAWYERS

MELBOURNE

WORKSPACES FOR LAWYERS

Created by lawyers,
for lawyers.

Clarence Melbourne

456 Lonsdale Street, Melbourne

WHY CLARENCE

The Clarence Promises.

Clarence was created thirty years ago by lawyers who wanted to practise law on their own terms. That is still the whole idea.

01

We help you focus on your work

Reception, court runs, printing and IT, handled by people who know legal work.

02

We help save your money and reduce your risk

In-house IT, partner discounts, free CPD and paralegal support without the salary.

03

We'll help support your clients

Staffed reception, private rooms and a building built for discretion.

04

We help you practise at your best

Six hundred practices in the network. A legal network available if and when you need it.

Room for where your practice is now.

Book a tour of our Melbourne office.

Private Office

from $1,530 / month

Your own furnished office in the legal precinct, sized from one room to a team.

Virtual Office

from $410 / month

A CBD address and calls answered, with rooms when you need them.

Coworking, day access

from $200 / day

A day on the coworking floor and members' cafe.

Meeting room hire

from $45 / hour

Acoustic rooms by the hour, with reception to meet your clients.

Indicative, August 2026, excluding GST. Private office pricing depends on the office and the term.

YOUR MELBOURNE ADDRESS

456 Lonsdale Street.

In the heart of Melbourne's legal precinct, near the County Court and overlooking the Supreme Court of Victoria, with public transport steps from the building.

Members' cafe

With barista-style coffee and space to meet.

"Convenient, friendly and social, things get done, and the Lonsdale Street location is important."

April Arslan, Arslan Lawyers
